

KAMATYC Spring Conference 2007
March 30-31, 2007
Wichita State University

KAMATYC

has arranged to hold a joint spring meeting with the Kansas Section of the Mathematical Association of America (KMAA).

Registration:

The conference is free, there is no registration fee, but we do ask you to pre-register. Send an email to KAMATYC President Steve Wilson (swilson@jccc.edu) with your name, affiliation, address, and email address.

Presentations:

Members of both KAMATYC and KMAA have volunteered to present. The list of abstracts is available at the KMAA abstracts page. Information about the keynote speaker is available on the speakers page.

Location:

All activities will take place in Jabara Hall on the Wichita State University campus. A campus map is available.

Tentative Schedule:

A more complete (but still tentative) schedule is available on the KMAA program page.

Friday, March 30

- 6:30 p.m., Registration begins
- 7:15 p.m., Introductory remarks by WSU President Donald Beggs
- 7:30 p.m., First keynote address by Professor Robert Finn of Stanford University

- 8:30 p.m., Reception

Saturday, March 31

- 8:30 a.m., Registration begins
- 9:00 a.m., Sessions
- 11:30 a.m., Lunch break (on your own)
- 1:00 p.m., Second keynote address by Professor Finn
- 2:15 p.m., Sessions
- 4:00 p.m., KMAA and KAMATYC meetings

Accomodations:

The accommodations page of the KMAA conference web site lists several possible overnight options in the Wichita area.